

Umpire Rankings Classifications

100 This umpire is the very best NWAU has and is qualified to do any level or high-profile game that NWAU may be asked to officiate – exemplifies to the highest traditions the NWAU mission and Code of Ethics. Division I Umpire. Can self-assign anything we have that is self-assignable.

150 – This umpire should be able to do all DII and DIII games. These umpires can do the best high school assignments and self-assignable games.

200 – This umpire can do selected DII and DIII games. These umpires should be able to do most of our high school assignments and most of the self-assignable games.

250 - This umpire can do mostly DIII games but might be considered for the DII games. This umpire can do most of our high school assignments and most of our self-assignable games.

300 – This umpire can do selected DIII games. This umpire can do most of our high school assignments and most of our self-assignable games.

350 - This umpire should be getting Jr. College with a partner that is 100-300 to help monitor his progress. This umpire should be able to do most of our high school assignments and self-assignable games.

400- This umpire should be given the opportunity to do the top level high school assignments and most of the self-assignable games.

* 450 – OK to do most of our high school assignments and most of our self-assignable games.

500 – Ok to do most of our high school assignments and the C level games in amateur baseball. Ok to do Legion self-assignments.

550 – Ok to do a limited amount of high school baseball. This umpire cannot do any amateur self-assignments but he can do JV high school and District 5 Legion ball self-assignments.

600 This umpire has displayed umpiring skills sufficient to be a NWAU Member Umpire. Needs to work closely with Mentor to improve skills via Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) so as to better achieve NWAU Mission and exemplify the Code of Ethics. This umpire cannot do any self-assignments except JV high school and District 5 Legion ball.

*All umpires 450 and above should be able to do any of the self-assignments that the Assignment Secretary makes available.

“Respecting the Game Since 1921”